Oscar Cox, Esq.
Cox, Langford, Stoddard & Cutler

Dear Mr. Cox:

For the sake of good order I should like to place on record that, in view of the diminished volume of activities, you have reduced the amount of your retainer for professional services to $600.00 (six hundred dollars) per month, effective May 1, 1955.

I should like you to know how much I have appreciated this gesture which has shown that you not only help us with advice and legal work, but identify yourself with our interests. In view of the new budgetary requirements of the Delegation this adjustment will be of help.

In the turmoil of day to day business one has no opportunity to stop, take stock, and express one's sincere appreciation for the assistance and thoughtful care that is extended by friends and close colleagues. Let me assure you, therefore, on this occasion that whether the volume of activities increases or falls, whether the dollar and cent amount of the consideration for your professional work rises or decreases, my personal appreciation for what you are giving us, and our gratitude, remains the same.

Sincerely yours,

/s/ Egidio Ortona

REGISTRATION No. 746

May 2, 1955

Dear Mr. Ortona:

What is said in your letter of April 29, 1955 about the adjustment of our retainer for professional services to $600.00 per month, effective May 1, 1955, is not only exceedingly well said but with an understanding and warmth that is unique.

The long and continued relationships with you have been such as to make it more than a pleasure to work with you. To see the growing contribution which you have been making for your country has been an inspiration and joy.

Sincerely yours,

s/ Oscar Cox
